Pennywhistle with the North Bay Symphony!

The North Bay Symphony welcomes pennywhistle player Daev Clysdale to the stage in a concert filled with Celtic tunes that just might get audiences dancing in the aisles. “Whistle a Celtic Tune” takes place at 2:30pm on Saturday, May 14 at the Capitol Centre.

This one-hour, family-friendly concert will delight Celtic music fans of all ages – and children 12 & under are FREE with the purchase of an Adult or Student ticket.

Daev Clysdale will be familiar to North Bay audiences from his appearances with the Celtic band Rant Maggie Rant. He has performed across North America and has twice competed in the All-Ireland Finals. Daev was the first to earn a Canadian music performance degree on the tin whistle and he has composed a piece for tin whistle and orchestra that will receive its world premiere at this concert!

Music includes selections from Lord of the Dance and the Titanic soundtrack, Pennywhistle Jig from the film The Molly McGuires, and many more jigs and reels to get hands clapping and toes tapping!

The North Bay Symphony, directed by Thomas Jones, entertains, enriches, and educates the community through musical performances and music education programs. Now in its 39th season, the NBSO presents a four-concert evening series and a two-concert matinee series at North Bay's Capitol Centre, as well as several outreach performances throughout the community. In-school music education programs annually reach over 1,200 students across the region, the Symphony String School provides violin, viola, cello, and guitar lessons to students of all ages and all abilities, and the Youth Orchestra offers ensemble learning and performing opportunities to young musicians. NBSO is a mature, vibrant, and growing not-for-profit charitable organization managed and operated by a committed and skilled volunteer Board of Directors and two part-time staff members. NBSO is the recipient of the 2013 Vida Peene Orchestra Award, a biennial award recognizing artistic and organizational excellence of an Ontario orchestra. NBSO is a proud 2015 inductee to the North Bay Musicians and Entertainers Hall of Recognition.
