

North Bay Symphony Society

Resident Concertmaster, North Bay Symphony Orchestra /
String School Teacher, North Bay Symphony String School (North Bay, Ontario)

JOB DESCRIPTION

We are looking for the ideal candidate to fill the position of resident Concertmaster with the North Bay Symphony Orchestra in North Bay, Ontario. This position includes 15 hours/week of studio teaching. The starting salary will be $32,000.00 for a period of approximately 40 weeks. The successful applicant must be willing to relocate to the community. An audition will be required.

This position will commence September 1, 2016.

Additional musical opportunities are available in the community.

QUALIFICATIONS

Position qualifications include (but are not limited to):

- Minimum- Bachelor of Music or equivalent experience
- Experience in Suzuki pedagogy is an asset
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Capacity to foster productive relationships with staff, parents, Board and fellow musicians
- Self-motivated with the ability to meet deadlines and manage flexible scheduling
- Bilingualism (English/French) would be an asset

The successful candidate will be expected to support and promote the vision of the North Bay Symphony Society. This is a community orchestra comprised of amateur and professional musicians who, under the leadership of Music Director, Thomas Jones, provide an engaging and inspiring cultural experience to the community.

For more information about NBSO visit our website at www.NorthBaySymphony.org

Please be prepared to supply a current Police Background Check as well as suitable references for contact.

For further information or to apply, please send cover letter and resume to: positions@northbaysymphony.org

Application deadline – June 30, 2016.