

Dr. Joshua Wood has studied, performed, and taught music throughout Canada and the United States. A native of London, Ontario, Josh completed his Bachelor of Music (Hons. Performance) degree at Western University before pursuing graduate studies at the Eastman School of Music and the University of Cincinnati. He has performed with ensembles including the North Bay Symphony, Sudbury Symphony, National Academy Orchestra, Richmond (IN) Symphony, London Symphonia, National Youth Orchestra, and Reverb Brass. Josh has taught extensively, including collegiate masterclass presentations in Canada and the U.S., and he is a former faculty member of the Kincardine Summer Music Festival. In addition to his NBSO duties, Josh currently serves as Music Director of the Timmins Symphony Orchestra and Chorus, a position he has held since 2016. An active arranger and composer, Josh has created numerous works for both orchestra and chamber ensemble. In his spare time, Josh enjoys cross-country skiing, hockey, fishing, tennis, mountain biking, and baseball.

Behind every success there are partners.

MUSICA DA CAMERA

Saturday, October 15, 2022 at 7:30pm (Location to be determined)

ADULT $25/$30 | STUDENT $15/$20 | CHILD - FREE*

The NBSO kicks off the 22-23 season with the rich harmonies and passionate melodies of Italian music. Each of the orchestra's wind, brass, and string sections are highlighted in this tuneful chamber concert, featuring works from Renaissance composers Palestrina and Gabrieli through to 20th century artists like Respighi and Puccini.

YULETIDE CLASSICS

Saturday, December 10, 2022 at 7:30pm - Capitol Centre

ADULT $42 | STUDENT $18 | LIVE-STREAMING $20 | CHILD - FREE*

The NBSO triumphantly returns to the Capitol Centre main stage with a Christmas celebration featuring the full orchestra, a chorus, and dancers. Enjoy a collection of seasonal favourites including highlights from the Nutcracker suite, John Rutter's Gloria, and Arthur Harris' brilliant medley of popular carols. Also featured will be the perennial NBSO favourite Sleigh Ride, and a Christmas sing-along for the audience.

DANCES FROM LONG AGO AND FAR AWAY

Sunday, February 26, 2023 at 2:00pm (Location to be determined)

ADULT $25/$30 | STUDENT $15/$20 | CHILD - FREE*

Individual orchestra sections once again take center stage in this program of uplifting dance music. Wind, brass, and percussion players present selections from Susato's historic collection of Renaissance dances, the Dansereye, in an arrangement from our new artistic director, Josh Wood. The string section presents Gustav Holst's famous St. Paul's Suite alongside the charming Lady Radnor's Suite from Charles Hubert Parry, featuring several classic English dance tunes.

SPRING RETURNS

Saturday, April 15, 2023 at 7:30pm - Capitol Centre

ADULT $45/$30 | STUDENT $15 | CHILD - FREE*

The NBSO ushers in the spring season with its full instrumental forces. North Bay native and Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra principal oboist Erin Brophy performs Vaughan Williams' Concerto for Oboe and Strings, and the orchestra presents Dvorak's Symphony No. 8 in G Major ("Spring"), a work inspired by the composer's love of the gardens, fields, and forests of Bohemia. Also featured will be the rollicking first movement of Canadian composer Kelsey Jones' Miramichi Ballad.

CHAMBER MASTERWORKS

Saturday, May 27, 2023 at 7:30pm (Location to be determined)

ADULT $45/$30 | STUDENT $15 | CHILD - FREE*

Our season finishes with a concert of two undisputed chamber masterpieces, Haydn's String Quartet op. 76 no. 2 ("Fifths"), and Schubert's Octet in F Major for combined winds and strings. This dramatic presentation features music by historic masters at the height of their artistic powers.
